When Un- cle Sam was call - ing for re - cruits to go a - way, He took the name of
He went a - cross the wa - ter with the oth - er boys in trim, And vowed a vow each

John - ny Jones al - so his age they say, He took his place a - mong the boys and day he'd get a Ger - man in the whim, He fought with all the cour - age that a felt so proud hoo - ray! But a - las for John - ny Jones for he was full of sad dis - sol - dier boy could fight! And no Ger - man stopped to ask him which was left foot which was may..... The or - ders came so thick and fast his feet got tang - led up, for he right..... For John-ny Jones was fight-ing for his na - tive land and home, though he did - n't know his left foot from his right. Hep, hep, keep in step, if you

Accent base notes know which one is left foot which is right,..... But when you're cross the wa - ter, a fight - ing 'long the Rhine, If you'll on - ly fight like John-ny Jones we'll think you're do - ing fine.
