The musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of five systems of music. Each system has a vocal line on a treble clef staff and a piano accompaniment on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The lyrics are written below the vocal line. The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note bass line and chords in the right hand. The piece concludes with a first and second ending for the piano part.

CHORUS

The musical score is written for voice, piano, and bass. It consists of four systems of music. Each system includes a vocal line with lyrics, a piano accompaniment line, and a bass line. The lyrics are: "You have a wor-der-ful way of do-ing what you 'o. Indeed you do, And a wonderful way of woo-ing that is new - its love-ly too. You have a won-der working smile And a mill-ion dol-lar style. And what is wonderful yes more than wonder-ful You love me too I know you do. You have a wonderful way o kissing makes me yearn, where did you learn And a wonderful way to". The piano part features a steady accompaniment with some melodic lines, and the bass part provides a solid harmonic foundation.
