

Look!! Soldier Boy A Song For You!!
Yes Here It Is, and Meant For You,
'Twill Nerve The Arm, and Fire The Heart
And Help You Do The Noble Part
That You Are Chosen Now To Do
Look!! Soldier Boy A Song For You.!!

COMRADES IN ARMS

BY ✓

JULIAN JORDAN

(WRITER OF SONGS OF THE BETTER CLASS)

PRICE, 25 CENTS NET

PUBLISHED BY
THE JULIAN JORDAN MUSIC CO.
NEW YORK CITY

NOTE

Mr. Jordan is the Author of the world famous "The Song That Reached My Heart" and more than two hundred other meritorious songs. He is the originator of the idea which gave to his song "When You're Away" the subsequent title "The Handkerchief Song" which means that the words and melody of the song are printed on khaki handkerchiefs making a most appropriate, as well as a most novel present for the boys in the Contonements, or "Over There". The song "When You're Away" is published by Jos. W. Stern & Co. who will also fill orders for the handkerchiefs. "Comrades In Arms" is also a handkerchief song.

SEE BACK PAGE

Comrades In Arms

Words and Music by
JULIAN JORDAN

Writer of songs of the better Class

March tempo a tempo

Com - rades in arms brave and stead-fast
Love for the loved ones we're leav-ing

Men who have answered the call For hon - or and jus - tice have answered
Fear not they too will be brave. Answering the call mothers, sweethearts

Com - rades in arms he roes all Read - y to fight for our country
Dear - est ones loy - al - ly gave Com - rades in arms go we for - ward

"Land of the brave and the free" Read - y to fight for "Old
Ask - ing not why it should be Our flags in dan - ger then

Glo - ry" on ward Com - rades in arms are we.
Com - rades in arms are we.

f rit. ad liq.

CHORUS

Com - rades in Arms Com - rades in Arms, Fear - less of War's grave a - larms Read - y to go Come weal or woe

Read - y to do or to dare (o - ver there) March - ing a - long

Sing - ing a song The life of a Sol-dier has charms,

Banish - ed is fear for our du - ty is clear Com - rades Com - rades in Arms fz rit. ad lib.

TO
THE "COMRADES IN ARMS"

A word from the writer of "When You're Away" and "Comrades in Arms" to the boys who are preparing to go, and to those who have already gone "over there".

Boys, I can't go with you, for they'd say "you're too old" but I am with you in spirit, and feel that I want to help, and have written these two songs, with the idea, "to help", this being the principle motive. Have you received your khaki handkerchief with the song "When You're Away" printed on it? Whether you have or not, be sure and get a copy of "Comrades In Arms." I am confident that you will like it, and when you buy the song, you get with it FREE a beautiful Ladies' handkerchief on which is printed the following:-

DREAMING OF YOU

Where camp-fires are gleaming

To-night I am dreaming

Dreaming of you, of you

Of a face that is fairest,

A grace that is rarest.

I'm dreaming my loved one of you,

Your ring on my finger,

Your kisses that linger

All speak to my soul, dear, of you.

Where camp-fires are gleaming

To-night I am dreaming.

Dreaming of you, of you.

Where camp-fires are gleaming

To-night I am dreaming.

And longing for you, for you,

Forget you? no never!

I'll love you forever

You know that I'm writing what's true;

What e'er may betide dear,

My love will abide, dear,

Each day does the old love renew!

Where camp-fires are gleaming

To-night I am dreaming.

Dreaming of you, of you.

YOUR SOLDIER BOY

In your next letter to "the girl you left behind you" enclose this dainty souvenir and I'm sure she'll have something very sweet to say to you in her reply.

Sincerely yours,

Julian Jordan