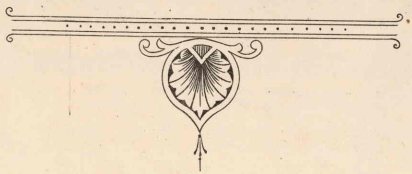
DEC 27 1918 ©CLE 440432
R

RING OUT THE GLAD TIDINGS
O BELLS OF CREATION



WORDS BY

W. L. HEMMINGSON

MUSIC BY

CLARENCE KOHLMANN

PRICE 50 CENTS

PUBLISHED BY

W. L. HEMMINGSON

GIBBSTOWN, N. J.

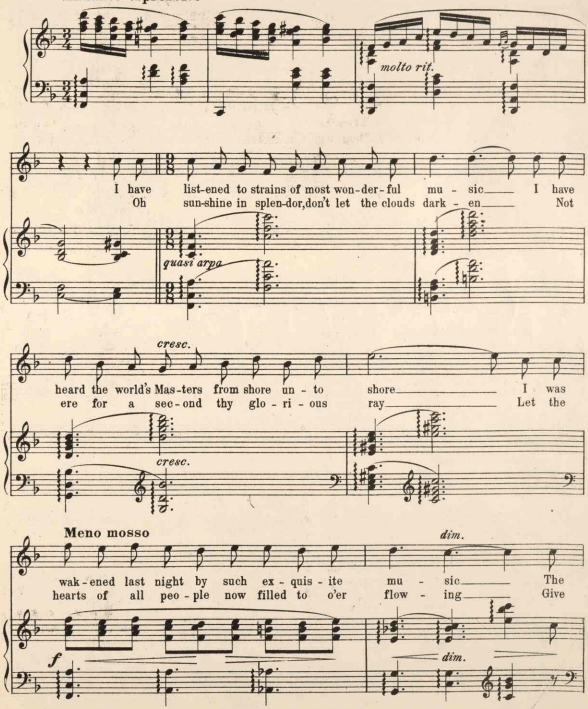
M1626
.K

Ring Out the Glad Tidings, Oh! Bells of Creation.

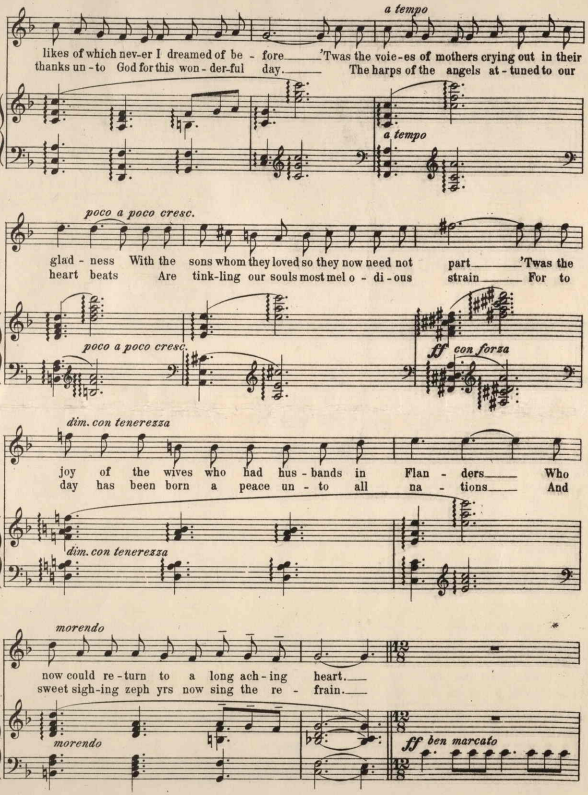
W. L. HEMMINGSON

C. KOHLMANN

Andante espressivo



Copyright 1918 by W. L. Hemmingson, Gibbstown, N. J.



a tempo
likes of which nev-er I dreamed of be - fore 'Twas the voi-es of mothers crying out in their thanks un - to God for this won - der-ful day. The harps of the angels at - tuned to our
a tempo
poco a poco cresc.
glad - ness With the sons whom they loved so they now need not part 'Twas the heart beats Are tink-ling our souls most mel o - di - ous strain For to poco a poco cresc.
ff con forza
dim. con tenerezza
joy of the wives who had hus - bands in Flan - ders Who day has been born a peace un - to all na - tions And
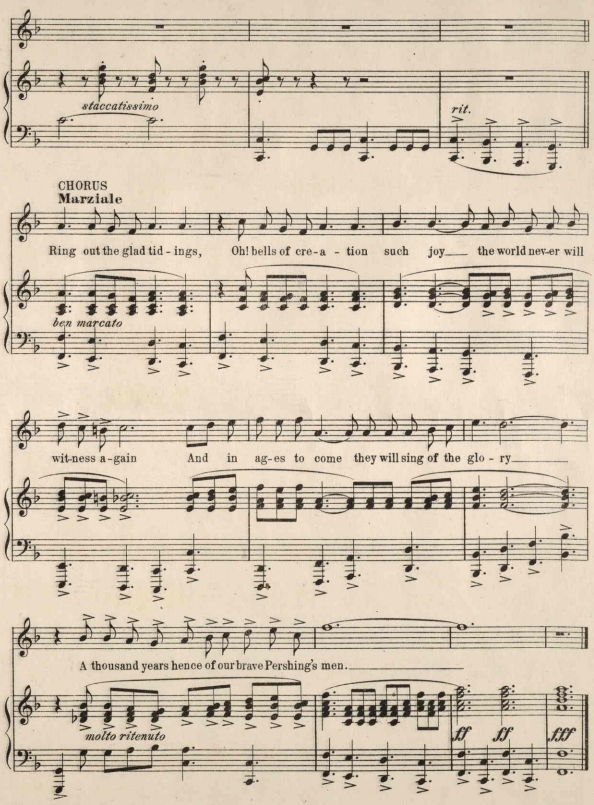
dim. con tenerezza
morendo
now could re - turn to a long ach - ing heart.
sweet sigh-ing zeph yrs now sing the re - frain.
morendo
ff ben marcato



staccatissimo
rit.
CHORUS
Marziale
Ring out the glad tid - ings, Oh! bells of cre-a - tion such joy the world nev-er will ben marcato
wit-ness a-gain And in ag-es to come they will sing of the glo - ry
A thousand years hence of our brave Pershing's men.
molto ritenuto
ff
ff
fff

446/53