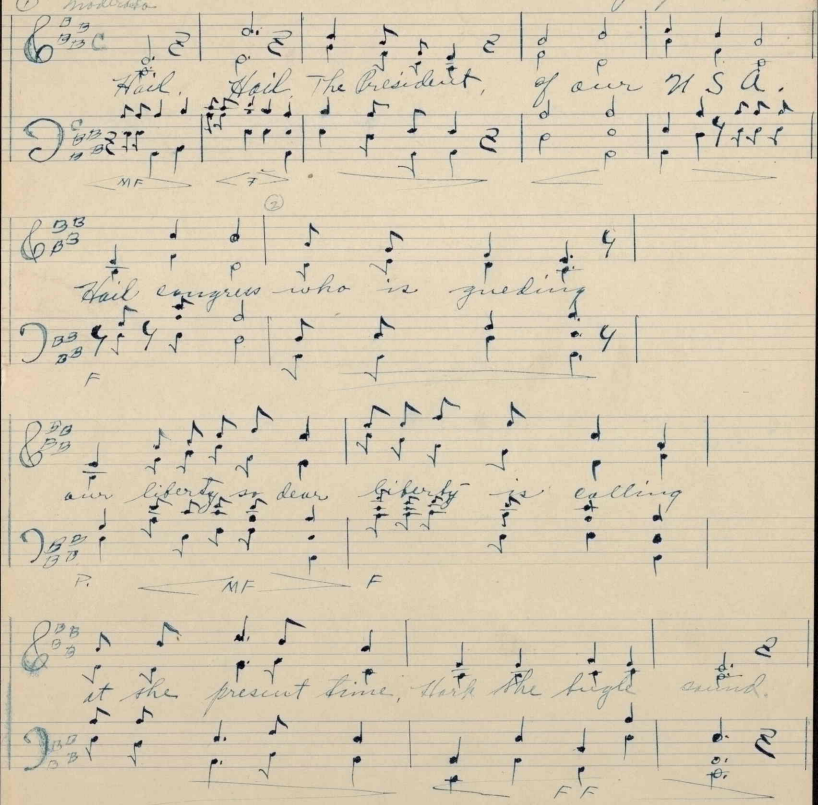
©CLE426903
JUL -5 1918

Our Liberty.

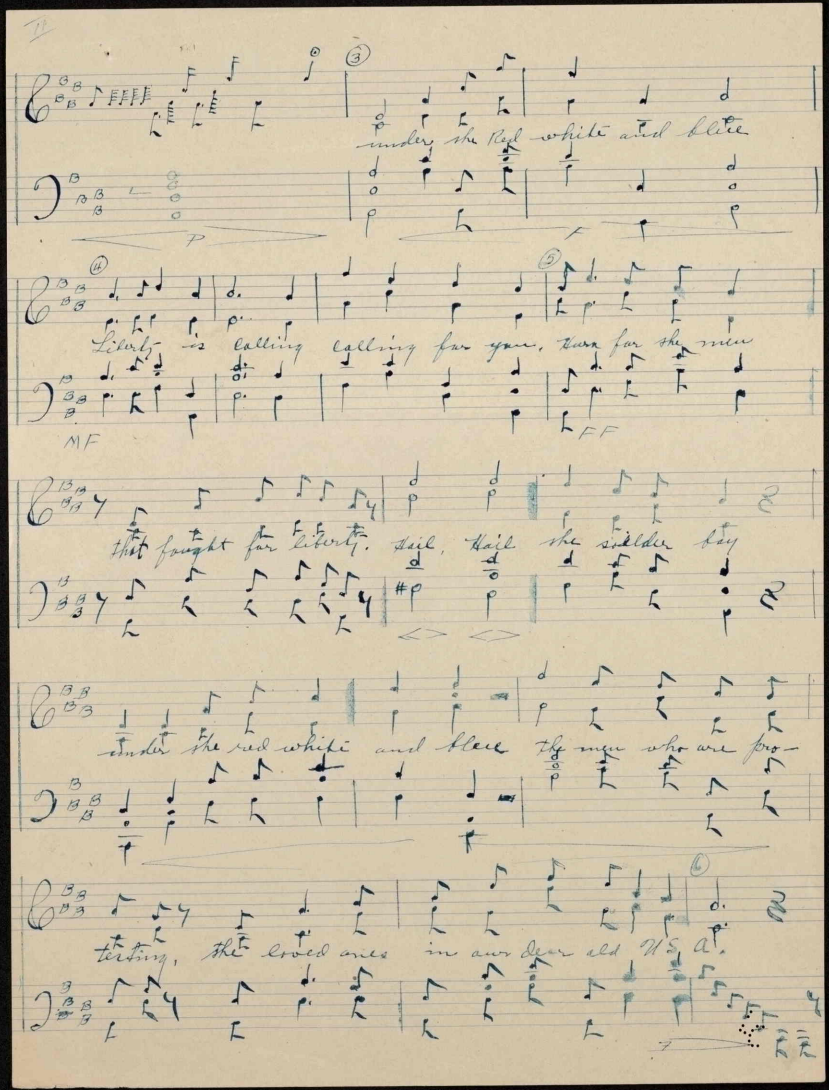
A new song and play

By E. K. Kellum.
Bucks Rapids, Minn.

July 1, 1918.



M1646
.K



under the Red white and blue
Liberty is calling calling for you, now for the men
MF
FF
that fought for liberty. Hail, Hail the soldier boy under the red white and blue Thy men who are fertiring, the loved ones in our dear old U. S. A.

Aud. Mod.
Dear Liberty wrapped in our red white and blue,
MF
Do you hear me men of the U.S.A come and fight
F MF
for me for the sake of freedom and liberty come and join the army of our U. S. A.
FF
come and join the army of our U. S. A.
over

1 Sop. and Alto appear and start singing.
2 Ten. and Bass join, but stay back of S. & A.
3 Sops Alto only. Ten & Bass remain in position.
4 Ten & Alto.
5 S. A. T. & B.
6 S & A. only.
7 Second Soprano, dressed as Liberty comes and at head of all, and sings with alts, alts remains in old positio
8 Four boys besides soldiers, 2 come from each side and protect liberty. Soldiers should present arms, and stand at attention till curtain falls.
9 all sing.
10 Ten & Bass (1) First Soprano, alto, Ten & Bass (2) should all have a flag in hand 11 all sing.

This song can be used to great advantage in schools of all kind.

Or at any public meeting where they want a good patriotic song, as a nice play which can be acted by young people, as every body will enjoy to take part in it.

433726