With dignified humor

When I've won a world do - min - ion,___ Oer the land and o'er the seas;___
And the heath - en O - ri - en - tal,___ Must re - nounce his fa - bled Joss;___
I shall seek se - ques - tered is - lands,___ In the lone - ly Southern Seas;___

mf Moderato

When the world bows in submis - sion,___ To my whims and my de - crees;___
He must re - cog - nize the Kais - er,___ As his on - ly Lord and boss;___
Where the can - ni - bals are ram - pant,___ I will live in roy - al ease;___

rit.

When my arm - ies and my na - vies, Shall have done their dead - ly work;___
He may carve his lit - tle I - dols, From a stone or from a tree;___
More bar - bar - i - ties I'll teach them, I'll be Chief - tain of the Chiefs;___

a tempo.

I shall sup - er - sede Mo - ham - med, As the Pro - phet of the Turk;
If he's care - ful in the carv - ing, That his God re - sem - bles me;
We will bar - be - cue our cap - tives, And I'll join them in the feast;
rit.
He'll not im-por - tune the Al - lah, For re-mis - sion of his sin;
And the flee in - fest - ed Brah - min, Must for-sake his fool-ish way;
We will wage suc - cess - ful bat - tles, How we'll feast and dance and sing;
rit.
Hell not scan the east at sun - rise, But he'll look to - ward Ber - lin.
He must learn to kill and butch - er, And my war - lords to o - bey.
It will be a fit - ting ban - quet, For their Chief - tain and their King.
CHORUS Lively, Not too fast
Och,
I am der Kais - er der Sul-tan und der Czar, I am der Chief von der Sav-age Fi - Jis;
mp-ff
I am Bud - ha und der Brahma und der Joss, I am der God von der Turk und Chin - ese.
