YOUR STAR OF GOLD.

Song and Chorus

by Chas. A. Kells.
Hudson, New York.

Moderato

You are mount - ing the lad - der of life by the hours,      The rungs they grow less now, for
For the Sol - diers who fell while their coun - try de - fend - ing,      There's some - where a heart that is time will not stop and it leads to a gar - den of sun - shine and flow - ers,      Where some one is wait - ing, Just Ach - ing to night, They have gone from this world to a life with - out end - ing,      - - Out of the dark - ness and o - ver the top.      I dreamt that the An - gels their watch they were keep - ing, And aft - er the war they de - in - to the light, They passed from this earth, not an en - e - my fear - ing, Their spir - its we know at the cend - ed one day, And they found man - y Sol - diers that lay as tho' sleep - ing, They picked them up gent - ly and grave did not stop, They went from the shad - ows, are now in the clear - ing, Out of the trench - es and bore them a - way. O - ver - the top where true hearts are not pi - ning, o - ver the top.

Chorus - Tempo di marcia

Could you but see there Then you would be - hold, O - ver the clouds where the stars they are shi - ning. Some - where in Heav - en is your Star of Gold.
