©CE437228
NOV 20 1918

REDEMPTION OF ALSACE LORRAINE.

(Song)

Words by Frank Sutphin.

Music by JOSEPH KIEFER.
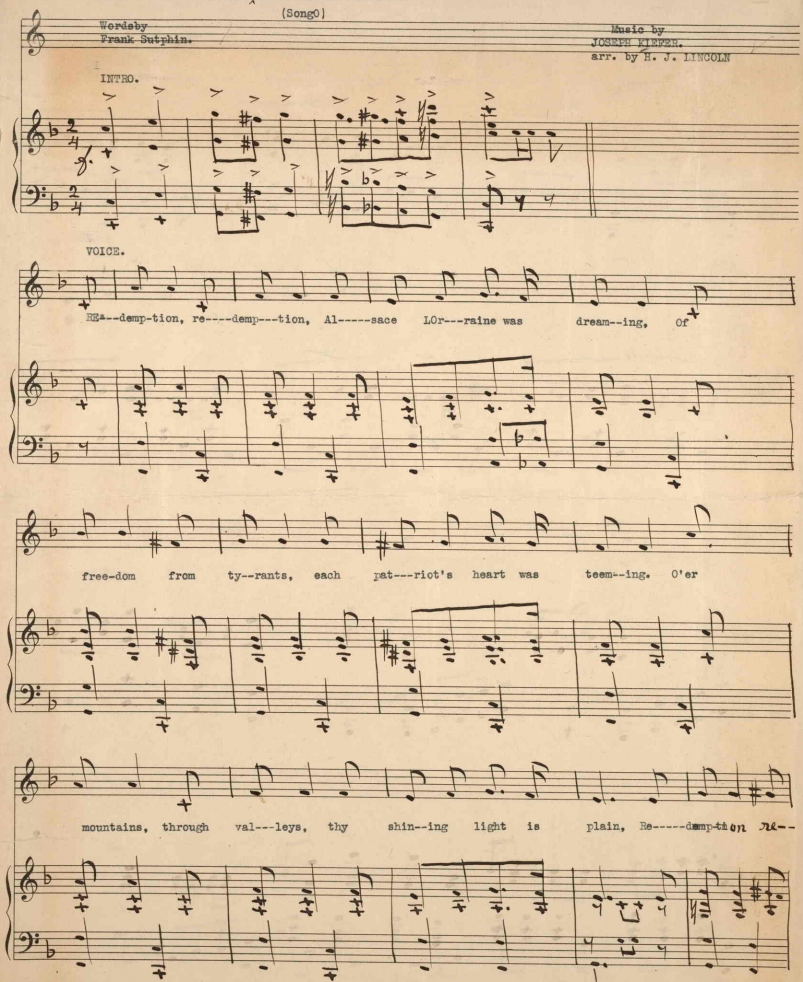
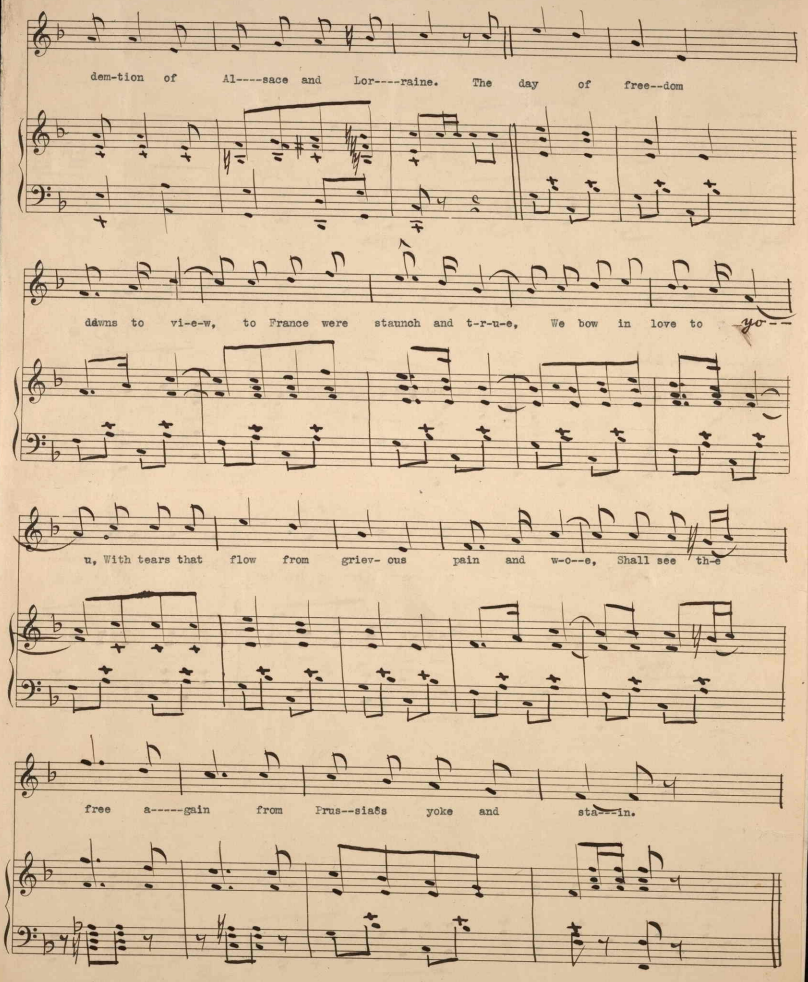
arr. by H. J. LINCOLN



M1666
.K

Copyright by Joseph Kiefer 1918.



dem-tion of Al----sace and Lor----raine. The day of free--dom dawns to vi-e-w, to France were staunch and t-r-u-e, We bow in love to yo-- u, With tears that flow from griev- ous pain and w-o--e, Shall see th-e free a-----gain from Prus--sias yoke and sta---in.

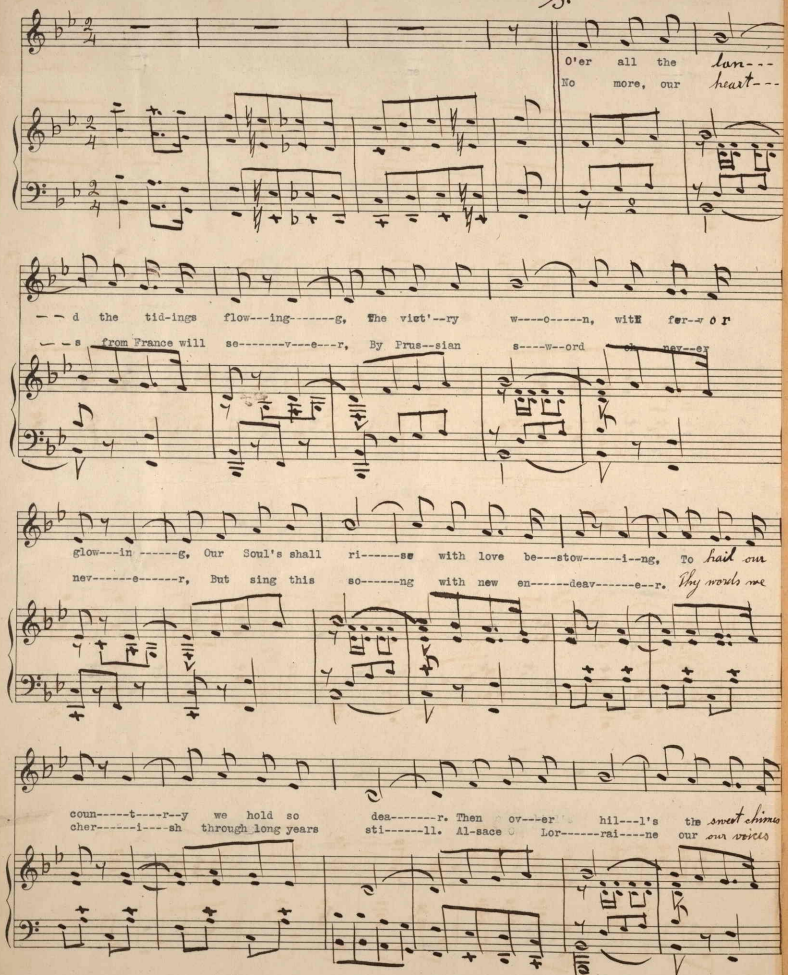
Intro.



O'er all the lan---
No more, our heart--- d the tid-ings flow---ing-------g, The viet'--ry w----o-----n, with fer-v o r s from France will se-------v---e---r, By Prus--sian s----w--ord o- nev--er glow---in -----g, Our Soul's shall ri------se with love be---stow------i--ng, To hail our nev------e------r, But sing this so------ng with new en------deav------e--r. Thy words we coun-----t----r--y we hold so dea-------r. Then ov---er hil---l's the sweet chimes cher------i----sh through long years sti------ll. Al-sace Lor------rai----ne our our voices ring---ing, Shall waft a---w---a---y their glad notes cle---ar, To heart's bound blen---d---ing, These strains we sen---d O'er dale and hi---li, Mar-seilles, Marl---o---w in years of w---o---e, And once a---ga---i---n M ar- seilles, to sei---le---s, our dear Mar---sai---le---s, Sounds once a---ga---i---n each heart to First,

Last.
Interlude.
Hea---E
thr--il---l.
Hea---r.
thr--i--l---l.
D. S. Al