Maestoso marcato

With vigor

Soldiers of A-mer-i-ca, free-men and loy-al, Armed at your coun-try's call Ring-ing and clear.
 Long have the can-non-ades thun-dered and rat-tled, Where the fierce war-locks raged Fu-rious and grim,
 For-ward your ar-mies sweep, mil-lions a-cross the deep, Driv-ing the cow-ard foe Back to his home.

Un-der her Stars and Stripes, Ra-diant and roy-al, Where is the man who would fal-ter or fear.
 Un-der a mer-ci-less Ty-rant em-bat-tled Filled the world's cup full of woes to the brim.
 On-ward then sol-diers true, Our hearts are all with you Glo-ry a-waits when tri-um-phant you come.

CHORUS in March time

March, march, shoulder to shoulder with your Al-lies, From near and far, true hearts and brave For Go-land right the world to save,

March, march, shoulder to shoulder with your Al-lies. Who's for the vic-to-ry, vic-to-ry! And who will win the war.
