

THE FLAG OF THE U. S. A.

WORDS AND MUSIC
BY
WALTER ST. CLARE KNODLE

PUBLISHED BY
W. S. KNODLE
PHILADELPHIA, PA., U. S. A.

11126
.K

10

THE FLAG OF THE U. S. A.

Words and Music by Walter St. Clare Knodle.

Allegro moderato.

1. Drums are beat - ing, Boys are march - ing,
2. Shells are fly - ing, Can - non boom - ing.

Tramp, Tramp, Tramp. Col - ors fly - ing. Bu - gles blow - ing. Blow, Blow, Blow, See the Boys strong and Boom, Boom, Boom. Guns are crack - ing. Bul - lets whiz - ing. Zing, Zing, Zing, But our Boys ev - er fine, As they march in the line, We'll sa - lute them as they go on their way. See the Flag which brave, Have no fear of the grave, Think - ing on - ly of their du - ty to - day. Far a - cross the proud - ly leads them on their way, Flag of Beau - ty, Points to du - ty, wins the day. It's the sea they're fight - ing in the fray, Hold - ing out a Help - ing hand to win the day. Soon vic -

Red, White and Blue of the Land of the True, It's the Flag of the good old U. S. A. torious, They'll come home to the Land of Lib - er - ty With the Flag of the good old U. S. A.

CHORUS.

So fol - low the Flag, the Red, White and Blue, The Stars and the Stripes of the Brave and the True, Long may She wave O'er Land and Sea, Long may She stand for Right and Lib - er - ty. Hur - rah! Hur - rah! for the Red, White and Blue, Hur - rah! for the Flag of the Brave and the True, Proud - ly we stand and fight for her to - day, The Flag of the U. S. A. So A.

