MAY 19 1919
©CLE 451246

BY THE BEAUTIFUL BLUE ST. LAWRENCE

WORDS BY
JAMES A. SMITH

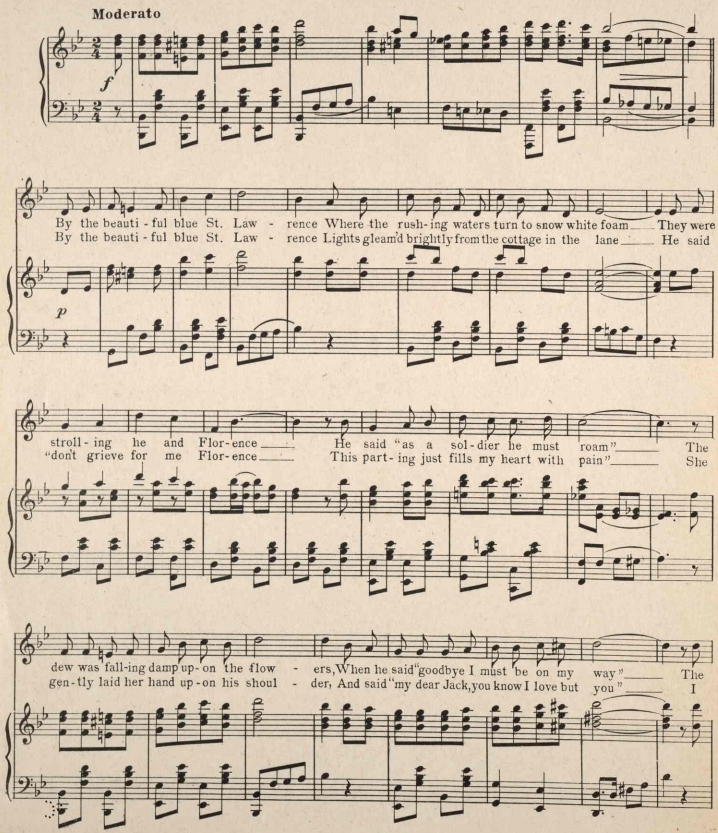
MUSIC BY
CHAS. LEWIS

PUBLISHED BY
JAMES A. SMITH
NEWTON FALLS, N.Y.

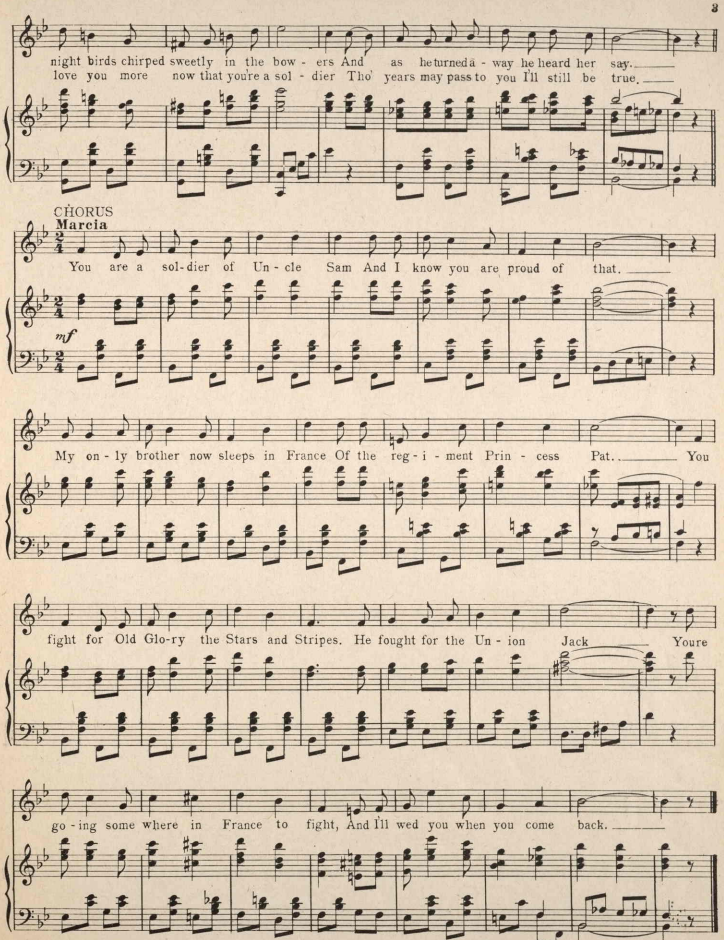
BY THE BEAUTIFUL BLUE ST. LAWRENCE

Words by
JAMES A. SMITH

Music by
CHAS. LEWIS



Copyright MCMXIX by James A. Smith



night birds chirped sweetly in the bow - ers And as he turned a - way he heard her say.
love you more now that you're a sol - dier Tho' years may pass to you I'll still be true.
CHORUS
Marcia
You are a sol-dier of Un - cle Sam And I know you are proud of that.
mf
My on - ly brother now sleeps in France Of the reg - i - ment Prin - cess Pat. You fight for Old Glo-ry the Stars and Stripes. He fought for the Un - ion Jack Youre go - ing some where in France to fight, And I'll wed you when you come back.

460500