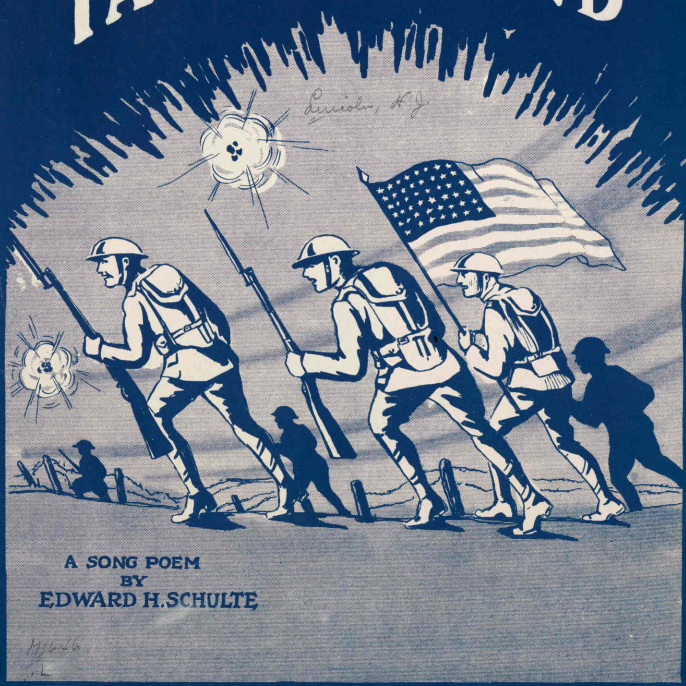
FROM NO-MAN'S LAND TO YANKEE LAND



A SONG POEM
BY
EDWARD H. SCHULTE

PUBLISHED BY
EDWARD H. SCHULTE
FT. WAYNE, IND.

©CLE452380

From No-Man's Land To Yankee Land

Words by EDWARD H. SCHULTE

Music by HARRY J. LINCOLN

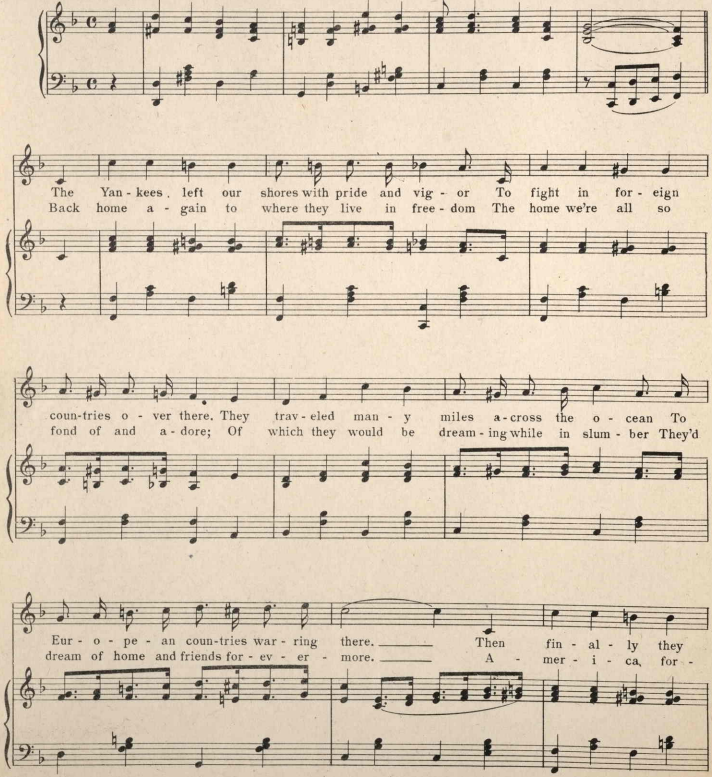
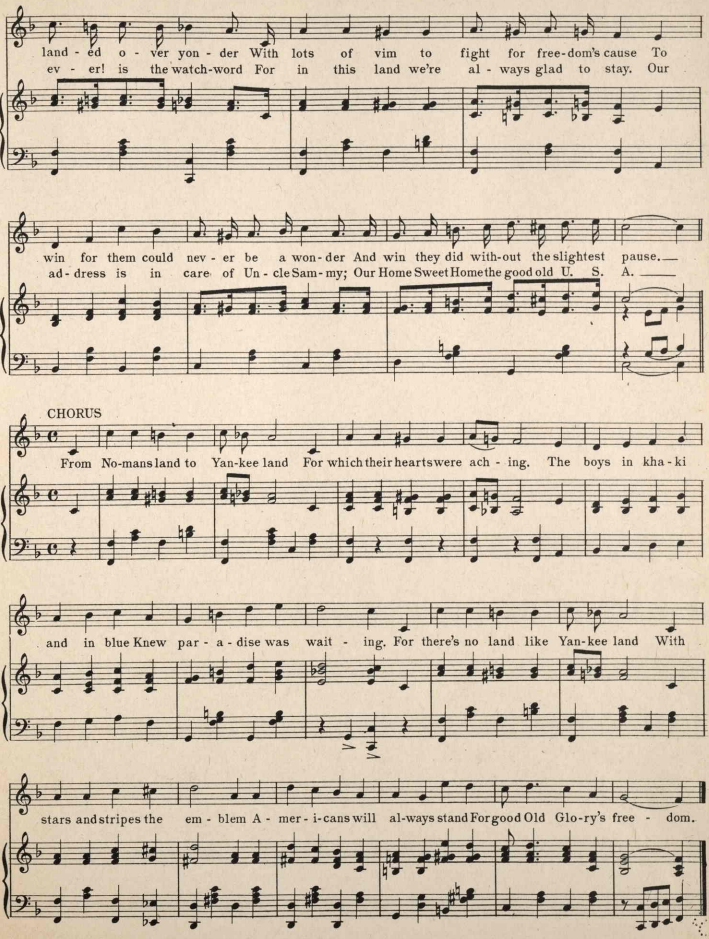
INTRO.



Copyright MCMXIX by Edward H. Schulte.



land - ed o - ver yon - der With lots of vim to fight for free-dom's cause To ev - er! is the watch-word For in this land we're al - ways glad to stay. Our win for them could nev - er be a won - der And win they did with-out the slightest pause.—
ad - dress is in care of Un - cle Sam - my; Our Home Sweet Home the good old U. S. A. — CHORUS
From No-mans land to Yan-kee land For which their hearts were ach - ing. The boys in kha - ki and in blue Knew par - a - dise was wait - ing. For there's no land like Yan-kee land With stars and stripes the em - blem A - mer - i-cans will al-ways stand For good Old Glo-ry's free - dom.

463209