Tempo di Marcia

PIANO f not too fast

1. Old Kai-ser Bill once had a dream, (Turn o-ver Bill, turn o-ver.) He'd
2. We'll drive the Hun from Bel-gi-um, We'll hang or tie the Kai-ser, We'll
3. He bit off more than he can chew; Old Bill is now all "in-ish;" He rule su-preme, and bathe in cream, And lie in beds of Clo-ver, He woke one day in sore dis-may, Thro' bring the Ger-man to his knees, We'll put the Rus-sian wis-er; We'll oust the Ho-hen-zol-ern crew From start ed things he could not do, And things he could not fin-ish, So bite the dust poor Wil-helm must, We smoke and roar, and din, pal-ae-ses they're in,

boys say he must go,

He saw our fight-ing Yan-kee Boys Were head-ed for Ber- lin!
We'll raise the old Red, White, and Blue, When we march thro' Ber- lin! } And
And we've e-nough of fight-ing stuff, Our Coun-try has the "dough!" }

INTERLUDE

Pershing, Haig and Foch, will rout the Jun-ker Boche, Hur - ray! Hur - ray! 'Tis not an i - die josh, And we'll keep
'We'll all be there by gosh,

CHORUS

go - ing, _____ yes, we'll keep go - ing _____ For we're in this game to win, 3rd verse. Poor Wil - helm, he must go.

Though thro' Hell they go, our Boys can show "Thro' tick-ets" to Ber - lin.
And we'll raise the Old Red, White, and Blue when we march thro' Ber - lin.
And we have e - nough of fight - ing stuff our Coun - try has the "dough".

_____ And we'll keep go - ing _____ And we'll keep go - ing _____ For we're in this game to win,
3rd verse. Poor Wil - helm, he must go.

Though thro' Hell they go, our Boys can show "Thro' tick-ets" to Ber - lin.
