Tempo de marcia

Hear all the peo-ple shout, "The War is O'er,"
Man - y the lives that made the sac - ri - fice,

Vic - tor - y is the song that fills the air, Great is the cost of tri - umph
Now let your dol-lars help with all their might, Here is a chance to show that to be paid, For what our Yan-kee lads did o - ver there.

you're a man, Come do your part and then 'twill be all right.

CHORUS:

‘‘EVERYBODY SING’’

So come on get square with Un-cle Sam - - my, Be a Yank and let's come through, We've a debt that we'll ne'er re gret, Pay up for Old Red, White and Blue : Yan - kee sons and guns brought home the vic - tor - y, Hear the glad song ev ry - where, "My coun - try,
 'tis for thee, Un - cle Sam - my, here's my share." 1 2 share."

(After Singing the first time)—“That was pretty good. But you can do a whole lot better. Now get into it, everybody sing.”

(Afterwards)—“Fine. I guess that’s some ‘pep.’ Now do you mean it? Very well then Come through—Kick in. Buy a Bond. Come on let’s do our share and put Victory into the Victory Loan.”
