Church!

We had you God-speed as forth you go To the fight for the Right 'gainst Wrong.
Giv-ing, un-self-ish-ly, time and strength, We shall not leave such men unsung.
We know, full well, you'll defend our flag, The beloved Red, White and Blue,
Live, all these days, so no act of yours Shall your record on high be-smirch.

(Con. S)

No "Hymn of Hate" shall mar our praise. Now, from our hearts, this pray'r we raise:
Think of the deeds of no-ble sires. We'll think of you at our heart's-fires,
Whene'er the lu-rid bat-tles lower, Re-mem-ber our men nev-er cover!
Then, when at last, the vic-tory's won, And home you come, your work well done,

(Con. S)

"God bless our boys, and pro-ject this band, Keep them in Thine Al-might-y Hand."
And pray to God, who will bless us still As we strive to o-bey His will.
Strike with your might in our no-ble cause For Hu-man-i-ty's ho-ly laws!
We'll praise our God who gave men like these To de-fend us on land or seas.
