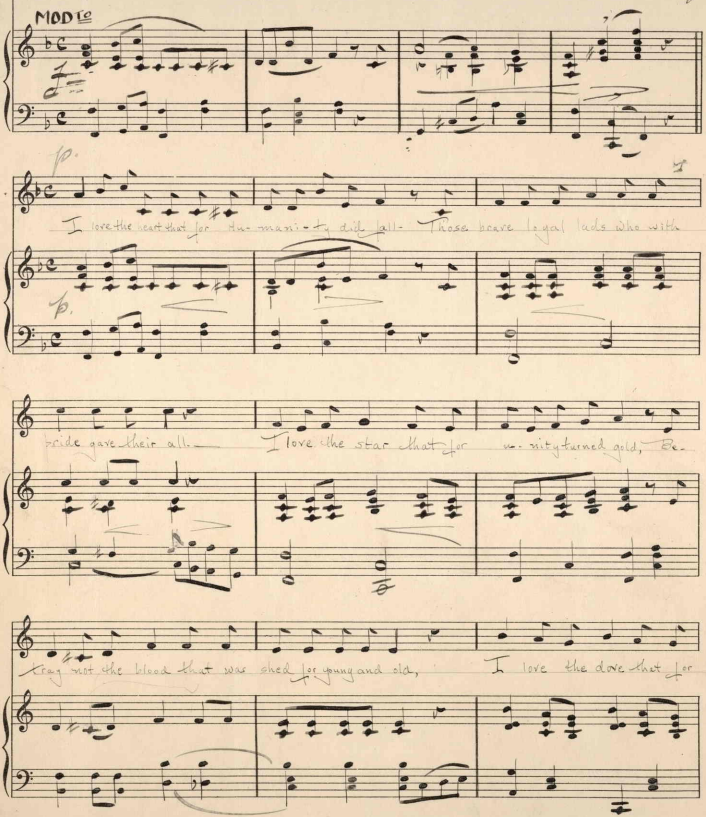
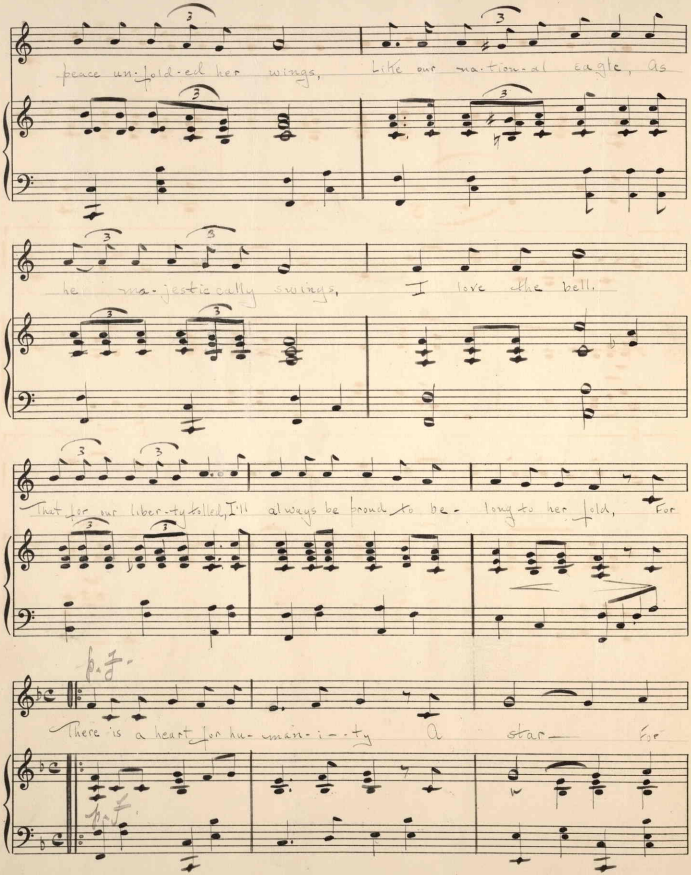
©CLE444251 FEB 17 1919

Patriotic Emblems.

By Helen Loring



M1606
.L



peace un-fold-ed her wings, Like our na-tion-al eagle, as he ma-jes-tic-ally swings, I love the bell.
That for our liber-ty toiled, I'll al-ways be bound to be-long to her fold, For There is a heart for hu-man-i-ty A star— For u - ni - ty, A dove for peace And a bell for lib-er-ty, Enshrined in the ve-ry soul of his - - to - ry, Enshrined in the ve-ry soul of his - - to - ry.

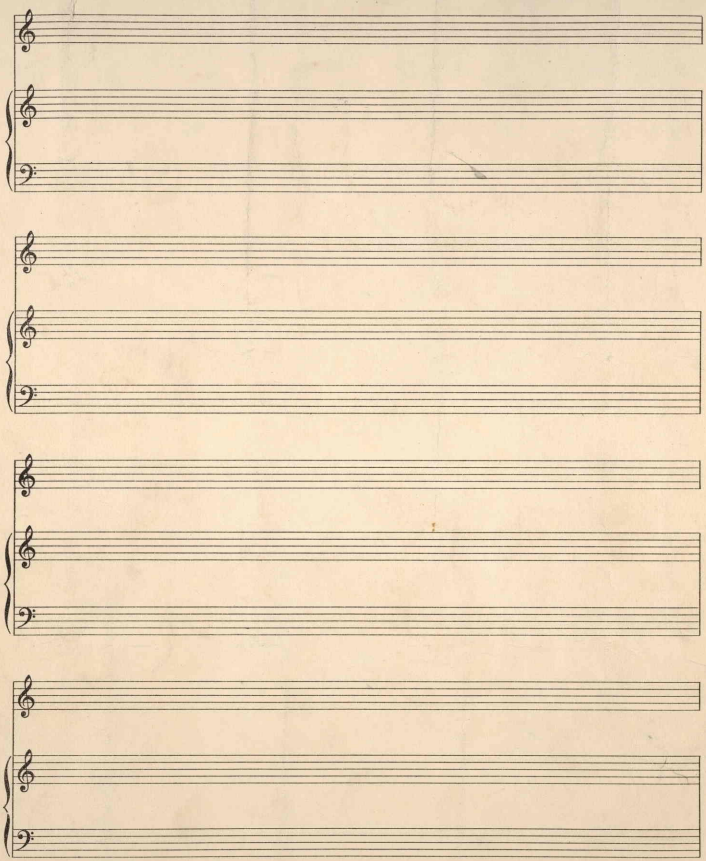
poco accel.



451.13

Register of Copyrights
Library of Congress
Washington
D. C.

Helen F. Grinnell
465 Columbus Ave. Chicago