"I DIE FOR FRANCE!"

1. She wore the Cross, the Mercy Cross
Of Red, and faced the Huns.
And when, reviled, she only smiled,
They fired the twenty guns.

O God of men! remember when
Thou resurrect Thy dead,
"I lived for France, I die for France!"
These were the words she said--
Before the flood of her dear blood
Had whelmed the Cross of Red.

2. Out in the land of No Man's Land
A soldier, dying there,
Sang of his love; and God above
Leant out the sky to hear:

"I Lived for France, I die for France!"
The Poilu's whispers came;
But God had heard the whispered word,
And whispered back the same:
"There is no death for him whose breath
Is given in France's name!"
