Stars and Stripes

by Arthur L. Chapman

Maestros

The musical score is written on ten staves. The first staff is a treble clef with a 3/4 time signature, containing a few notes. The second staff is a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with a 3/4 time signature, featuring complex chordal textures. The third staff is a single treble clef line with a 3/4 time signature, containing a melodic line. The fourth staff is a grand staff with a 3/4 time signature, continuing the complex chordal textures. The fifth staff is a single treble clef line with a 3/4 time signature, containing a melodic line. The sixth staff is a grand staff with a 3/4 time signature, continuing the complex chordal textures. The seventh staff is a single treble clef line with a 3/4 time signature, containing a melodic line. The eighth staff is a grand staff with a 3/4 time signature, continuing the complex chordal textures. The ninth staff is a single treble clef line with a 3/4 time signature, containing a melodic line. The tenth staff is a grand staff with a 3/4 time signature, continuing the complex chordal textures.

The image displays a handwritten musical score on aged, yellowed paper. The score is organized into three systems, each consisting of three staves. The first system begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The notation includes a variety of note values, rests, and dynamic markings such as 'p' (piano) and 'v' (forte). The second system continues the piece, showing more complex rhythmic patterns and chordal structures. The third system concludes the piece with a double bar line and repeat dots. The handwriting is clear and legible, typical of a composer's manuscript.

STARS AND STRIPES!

- I. While that Flag waves in the sky,
Flashing like a Flame on high,
Liberty shall never die,--
Stars and Stripes!

Stripes that tell the olden story,
Stars that symbolize the glory!

Flag of Freedom thou shalt fly
Over all men by-and-by,
Liberty shall never die!

- II. Born in Fire that ever burns,
Death thy noble Spirit spurns:
Every Nation to thee turns,--
Stars and Stripes!

Stripes that tell the olden story,
Stars that symbolize the glory!

Hope of Peoples everywhere,
Only Tyrants hate and fear --
Stars and Stripes!
O Stars and Stripes!
