DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE

OF

Standard Music Books and Studies.

PIANOFORTE METHODS.

Petersilea System for Piano.....Boards. $2 50

The new revised and enlarged edition. Recommended and used by the most eminent teachers in the country. The new edition has been much improved and made more serviceable by having octave and scale exercises written out in full; and many of the lessons have been furnished with explanatory remarks which were omitted in the former editions; also additional pieces have been added to make the ascent more gradual, which now makes this one of the most thorough, efficient, and scientific methods in use.

Boston Conservatory Piano Method..... 2 50

This "method" has met with much success; but to still more enhance its value, it has been thought best by the publishers, who have received from some of the leading teachers many valuable hints and ideas, to increase the number of pages by adding a number of scale exercises, etc., which has been done in the most acceptable manner by the author, Prof. James M. Tracy.

Blake's New Method. Price, Boards, 1 00, Paper, 75

This method is intended to be used without the aid of a teacher. It contains the elements of music and instruction for the pianoforte, to which is added a very choice collection of pieces of a popular character, consisting of Waltzes, Polkas, Marches, Dances, etc.

First Lessons for Piano. By Sisters of Notre Dame. 1 50

This is a book of moderate size, intended as a first book for children. The instructions are simple, melodious, and well arranged.

Kohler's Practical Method. Vol. I. 75

This is the first volume of the celebrated Kohler Method. Is coming into general use. Interesting for beginners.

Petersilea's Hand Rest for Piano. 2 50

This is a simple contrivance which is applied to pianos for the proper position of the hand, and the development of a thorough technique.

CABINET ORGAN METHODS.

White's School for Reed Organ. Price, 2 50

This method is used more than any instruction book ever published. Over 300,000 copies have been sold. It is a practical, easy, progressive, and thorough method, to which is added a large assortment of the best music, arranged especially for the organ, and selected from the best American and European authors.

Wright's New Method for Reed Organ. 2 50

A new and comprehensive method of instruction, and, we think, a decided improvement on other methods, on account of its simplicity, the progressive order of its studies, scales, pieces, etc., and containing one of the best selections of choice music of graded difficulty from the best authors, making it interesting as well as instructive.

Thayer's New Method for Cabinet Organ. Price, 1 50

Containing full primary and elementary exercises, progressive lessons, and favorite pieces, etc.

Blake's $1 Organ Instructor.....I 00

This is one of the best books of its class. Full of pleasing tunes and pieces, simply arranged.

New Method for Mason and Hamlin Organ.....I 50

Written and compiled for the Mason and Hamlin organ by Eugene Thayer.

SELECTIONS OF PIPE AND REED ORGANS.

Raymond's Reed Organ Gems.....Price, 2 00

A large collection of organ music, selected from the masses and operas, interspersed with Waltzes, Marches, Melodies, etc.; is a well-arranged and much-admired collection of organ music.

Ryder's Short Organ Voluntaries.....I 00

For pipe or reed organs. Just what is wanted by organists everywhere. Compiled by Mr. T. P. Ryder, organist for many years at Tremont Temple, Boston.

Organ Melodies.....Boards, $2 00, Cloth, 2 50

This is one of the latest collections of organ music published. The contents have been carefully selected from the best authors, and arranged especially for the organ, and will be found to be the best collection of late music in the market.

Thayer's Organ Journal and Review. Complete.....3 50

Edited and compiled by Eugene Thayer. Mr. Thayer's ability as a writer of the best organ music is so well known that his name is sufficient guarantee of the excellence of this volume. It not only gives a good selection of music, but contains reading matter of much interest to organists and students.

Thayer's Voluntaries and Responses. Complete, 2 50

Nos. 1, 2, and 3.....I 00 each.

A good collection of voluntaries and responses for church service.

THE FOLIO! THE FOLIO!

NEW DEPARTURE.

The FOLIO has, during the past ten years, occupied the leading position among American musical publications. Its prospectus for 1881 is perhaps the greatest ever issued in this branch of literature. Not only does it contain all the new music of the day, but its editorial staff is now one of the most complete imaginable. Its presiding editor is Mr. Earl Marble, a gentleman known throughout the country as a witty paragrapher and able critic. The musical department is in charge of Mr. C. A. White, senior member of the firm of White, Smith & Co., whose songs are known wherever the English language is spoken. Its editorial contributors are, Mr. Hezekiah Butterworth, whose admirable books of travel are too well known to need comment, and Mr. George Russell Jackson, one of the most brilliant writers on the American press, and connected with some of the leading Eastern journals. The musical criticisms and reviews will be in charge of the talented musician and critic, Mr. Louis C. Elson, who was one of the principal editors of the late Music Trade Review, and whose connection with musical journalism is one of the most prominent in this country, and whose able writings and criticisms have made him an authority on musical matters in America. The FOLIO will be made in future better than ever. Will contain more music, more reading matter, than ever before, while the price will remain the same. $1 60 per year, 15 cents per copy. Subscribe and get more, and better, music for your money than possible in any other way.

Mendelssohn's Songs without Words.

Bound in paper, $1 00; cloth, 1 50; gilt, 2 25

We have just published a very fine edition of the above celebrated work, taken from the "Edition Peters," which, for excellence of typography, paper, and general appearance, is superior to the original. The edition is printed from stone, on extra heavy paper, and will be found correct in every respect. We would call attention of Teachers and Students to the large and distinct note used, making it much easier to read than in editions where the smaller note is used.

Plantation Songs and Jubilee Hymns. By SAM

A TRIBUTE TO THE VETERANS

And a splendid one, too.

Composed for the Encampment of 1890, and dedicated to the G. A. R.

Grand Army Veterans

MEDLEY MARCH

—BY—

PAUL KELLER.

Introducing in a graceful manner the following well known melodies:—"The Flag without a stain," "Red, White and Blue," "I'se gwine back to Dixie," "Old Oaken Bucket," and "Star Spangled Banner." This march will be heard during the great parade and will be a feature. The title-page is a souvenir that everyone will want. It contains most perfect pictures of the much-loved veteran Gen. W. T. Sherman, Gen. W. R. Alger, Commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., and Geo H. Innis, Department Commander, G. A. R.

→ New "Decoration Day" Song. →

O God!

Protector of the Nations.

For Baritone.

COMPOSED BY

→ M. P. EAYRS. →

A truly magnificent song of NOBLE, PATRIOTIC SENTIMENT, peculiarly adapted to DECORATION DAY SERVICES or to any great POLITICAL OCCASION. This song has already been sung with unbounded applause by Boston's Favorite Baritone, MR. S. KRONBERG, and is the most impressive composition of this character that has recently been published. Especially adapted to the use of PUBLIC SINGERS.
