

George Washington to Thomas Jefferson, December 25,
1791, from Thomas Jefferson and the National Capital.
Edited by Saul K. Padover.

Washington to Jefferson WASHINGTON TO JEFFERSON

December 25, 1791.

My dear Sir:

You will find by the enclosed that our troubles in the Federal City are not yet at an end. I pray you to give the letters a consideration and inform me of the result, tomorrow, or next day. 17 Yours, etc.

17 No further record of this matter has been discovered in either the Washington Papers or Jefferson Papers.

[P. 449, WRITINGS OF WASHINGTON, Fitzpatrick, Vol. 31.]