James Monroe to Thomas Jefferson

Phila. April 2. 1792.

Dear Sir,

I have been requested by Mr. Dawson to make known to you his willingness to accept the office of Director of the Mint, to which bill the President has this day announced his assent. As my opinion of this gent'n was communicated to you on a former occasion & he is known personally to you, 'tis not necessary that I sho'd add any further on the subject. With the greatest respect & esteem, Dear Sir, Your friend & servant. Jas.. Monroe
