James Monroe to Thomas Jefferson

Washington Feby 13. 1820

Dear Sir

Major General Brown, who commands the northern division of our army, will have the pleasure to deliver you this letter. He visits Virga. for the purpose of manifesting his respect & regard for yourself & Mr. Madison & I have him this introduction to you at his request. His gallant conduct on the Niagara frontier in the last war, and his meritorious services, thro' the whole war in other respects, are known to you, so that I need not dwell on them. I refer you to him for information on all interesting subjects, depending here, and have only to add my affectionate wishes for your health & happiness. James Monroe
